

I enjoy listening to K-Love in my area because it has good Christian music, it is positive and encouraging and isn't riddled with political agendas or ads. The effect of losing K-Love in our area would be detrimental because the only other Christian station is riddled with political agendas and ads and wouldn't be listened to.

Thank you